From our Director of Parish Life

"[Every Christian family is called] to be a domestic church and a home where the fire of the Holy Spirit burns, spreading its warmth, bringing its gifts and experiences for the common good, and calling everyone to live in hope . . . the Holy Family of Nazareth [is] the perfect model that God offers in response to the desperate cry for help from so many families. By imitating them, our homes will become living torches of God's light." — Pope Leo XIV

The Jubilee Year comes to a close this Sunday, the Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, when Bishop Gruss presides at the Closing Mass at the Cathedral of Mary of the Assumption in Saginaw. This week, we will mark New Year's Day by celebrating the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God. It seems like a good time to look back with grateful hearts over the blessings and opportunities of the closing Jubilee Year and to look forward, asking ourselves how this experience of Jubilee has changed us for the better and what steps God may be calling us to take to keep the joy and hope of Christ's Jubilee alive in our hearts going forward into the new year, both for ourselves personally and for the families, households, and church in which we are members.

Families come in all forms and sizes. We rightfully place emphasis on the Sacrament of Matrimony and the good of the spouses and of the children to which it is ordered. (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1660) However, we always keep in mind single parents, and those who are living by themselves, with extended family, or with friends. Our families also include grandchildren, great-grandchildren, foster children, nieces and nephews—some whom we live with and some whom live far away. Whatever form our families and households take, Jesus is calling us to always grow in love in the midst of our current circumstances. We also remember that "No one is without a family in this world: the Church is a home and family for everyone, especially those who labor and are heavy laden." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1658)

Here are some suggestions that I would like to offer your family or household to consider as we enter the calendar year 2026:

- Make the commitment to worship at Eucharist every weekend this year. In his book, First Things First, author Stephen Covey encourages readers to let their lives be guided by their inner compass, not the clock, calendar, or immediate (seemingly urgent) tasks. Our principles determine and calibrate our inner compass. Because they are principles ("first things"), they are not "sometimes" things, but our deepest beliefs converted to consistent actions, which over time have the power to transform us. If indeed as Catholics,

"the Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life," (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1324) it is our first principle of faith that sets our inner compass as disciples of Jesus. Often, when weekly Mass becomes a "sometimes" thing it becomes a "rare" thing, just like when physical exercise becomes a sometimes thing it becomes a rare thing. This commitment takes a firm decision and building the consistent habit. Usually, we will not see the "gains" overnight; but over time, we will be transformed, personally and as a family.

- Pray for each other and with each other each day. How often do we take a few minutes out of our day to consciously pray for each other (spouses for each other, (grand)parents for their (grand)children, for our extended family, for our friends)? How often do we pray with them? I am so grateful for our Millions of Monicas prayer ministry, where women gather weekly to pray for their children, grandchildren, godchildren! Household prayer can be gathering for a few simple prayers (Lord's Prayer, etc.) or a family/neighborhood rosary. It can also be a 5–10-minute Examen prayer (I have copies of the format if you would like one) of gratitude and mindfulness or reading that day's Gospel before family dinner. One parishioner recently mentioned that her and her husband decided for a year to turn off the nightly news and instead spend that half hour in prayer and Bible study. Capuchin priest Martin Pable wrote in his book Prayer: A Practical Guide that prayer is any communication where we attend to the presence of God in us and around us.

- Build each other up through positive and encouraging language. So often, we begin to take the people closest to us for granted. We depend on each other, so it becomes all too easy to only see and give voice to the times when a family member has not met our expectations, whether those expectations are realistic or not. At its best, family life helps us to seek each other and call each other to become the best version of ourselves, not through criticism, but through benediction. In his book, The Life of the Beloved, spiritual writer Henri Nouwen encourages the practice of benediction (Latin: bene=good + dictio=to speak). To recognize the good in each other and to speak to each other's best selves is the spiritual practice of benediction, "The blessings that we give to each other are expressions of the blessing that rests on us from all eternity . . . that allows us to hear in an ever-new way that we belong to a loving God who will never leave us alone, but will remind us always that we are guided by love on every step of our lives."

- Serve those in need through family community service this year. The greatest gift given to me by my maternal grandfather was his taking me and my cousins along with him to visit nursing home residents on Saturday mornings when we were teenagers and my paternal grandfather taking us along to Rotary Club events. In these times of inflation and economic uncertainty, our vision can become too narrowly focused on the needs of our own household ("Will there be enough for us?"). Community service broadens our vision and deepens our compassion ("Is there enough for them?") The last time we served at Open Door, my son said to me, "I don't like getting up early on Saturday morning for Open Door, but I always feel so good afterward!" Find a charitable organization that is meaningful to your household, and volunteer to serve together regularly. In this way, we can let the light of Christ shine before all and the bonds of solidarity with others in our community will become more solid.

May this new year bring each of you and your families and households abundant blessings!

John

Feast of the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph

"And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him." Colossians 3:17

Using our gifts that God has given to us in ways that He desires is the best way to thank God and give Him glory. Using our gifts of time to help others helps grow the Kingdom of heaven here on earth.

V is for Vocation: The Families in Our Lives

On the Feast of the Holy Family celebrated on December 28, we give thanks for those we cherish: those of our own blood, those at work, those at school, those with whom we cheer on the Lions, those in the community, those at church. We pray for all those families in our lives that help provide an environment for holiness in every stage of life whether it be for consecrated life, marriage, or single life. We can look to the Holy Family as a model for holiness through a life of faith, work, and prayer. In turn, families can provide the support and encouragement to help each one of us discern God's will.

O Holy Family of Nazareth, community of love of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, model and ideal of every Christian family, to you we entrust our families. Open the heart of every family to the faith, to welcoming the word of God, to Christian witness, so that it become a source of new and holy vocations. Touch the hearts of parents, so that with prompt charity, wise care, and loving devotion they be for their sons and daughters sure guides towards spiritual and eternal values. Stir up in the hearts of young people the light conscience and free will, so that growing in "wisdom, age and grace", they might welcome generously the gift of a divine vocation. Amen. (USCCB)

WE PRAY FOR THOSE WHO HAVE GONE BEFORE US MARKED WITH THE SIGN OF FAITH

Confirmation Prep Program begins Wednesday, January 7th!

Do you have a 12 year old or older who is ready for Confirmation??...

We have finalized the details for our highly anticipated Confirmation Prep program! Below you'll find the basic details about the program. Please reach out to me if you have other questions!

What are the program requirements?

To prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation, a child must:

- be at least twelve years old by September 1, 2025.
- be a member of the parish in which he/she will be receiving the Sacrament.
- be an active participant in Sunday night Middle School Youth Ministry (held at Blessed Sacrament on Sunday evenings from 6-8pm).
- attend a retreat in Year 2 of preparation.

When and where will the program meet?

Location: Assumption BVM Parish

Time: Wednesdays, 6:15-8:00pm

Dates (Yr 1): January 7, 14, 21, 28,
February 4, 11, March 4, 11, 18, 25

What will the program look like?

The Diocese requires that all parishes use a program called Purpose to prepare their students for Confirmation. This is a wonderful program that truly aims to help youth encounter Christ and become life-long disciples! There are 24 lessons to be taught over two years. The lessons will feel like Youth Ministry! There will be games, food, prayer, teaching, and discussions.

We will be accompanying one group of students through the two-year program at a time. This means there will be students from two or more grade levels going through the program at one time.

This program is a collaboration between Blessed Sacrament, Assumption BVM, and St. Brigid parishes. Students from all three parishes will prepare for the sacrament together.

Stitch & Prayer Spreads Warmth, Comfort & Cheer

On December 8, the Stitch & Prayer group gathered at Assumption to discuss current projects and share a Christmas luncheon. The group has been busy making large fleece blankets, soft baby blankets, quilts, slippers, and hats for all ages to keep the Midland community warm during this snowy season! Items are shared with about 30 agencies, such as the Greater Midland North Family Center (formerly the North Midland Family Center) and the Midland Community Former Offenders Advocacy and Rehabilitation, to be distributed to those in need.

The group is also working on potholders for families in Guatemala. The Stove Team from Blessed Sacrament Church will distribute the potholders during their upcoming mission trip in February.

Stitch & Prayer is an interdenominational group with about 50 members from around the Tri-City area. The group welcomes interested crafters of all skill levels. Their next meeting will take place on January 12, 2026, at 9:45 am in the Assumption Parish hall.

If you enjoy sewing, quilting, knitting, or crocheting and would like to serve the most vulnerable members of our community, we invite you to come meet the group and join in their good work!

Please contact Julie Maurer (989-689-0480) or Jean Krause (989-430-2814) if you have any questions.
