BULLETIN DEADLINE: MONDAY at noon

Flock (noun): 1) a group of animals (such as birds or sheep) assembled together; 2) a group under the guidance of a leader; 3) a large number. (Merriam-Webster Dictionary)

Dear Parish Family,

For the past two weeks, we've "herd" a lot from Scripture about shepherds and sheep. Our daily readings have followed the story of King David, the humble shepherd given leadership over Israel. This weekend's first reading envisions God's people tending their sheep in peaceful pastures. In keeping with the theme, I'm here today with a few thoughts on Flocknote!

If you didn't know, Flocknote is the email software that our parish uses to communicate with the "flock" at Assumption. The name was inspired by Luke 15:4, the Scripture verse about leaving the ninety-nine sheep to find the one that is lost (which the founders of Flocknote have named Uno and adopted as their mascot). Flocknote helps parishes connect with their members through easy-to-create emails and text messages.

Now, if you're anything like me, you probably receive far too many emails and text messages on a daily basis. Yet perhaps you've also experienced the great irony of modern technology and communication: that we are more connected than ever before, but also lonelier than ever before. Why?

"The definition of communicate is to give, to impart, or to transmit something in order that you might share it in common. Its Latin root (communicare) means to make common, to share, or to join with. The very purpose of communication is to bring about communion."
—Matthew Warner

Matthew Warner, founder of Flocknote, answers that question in his book,

Why They Follow: Lessons in Church Communication from That One Lost Sheep. He makes the case that technology too often connects us with information, not with authentic human relationships. Our inboxes get flooded with special offers and notifications of varying importance, but personal messages are few and far between. Even when a note is addressed to us by name, often someone is trying to sell us something.

For example, I recently made the mistake of giving my email to Ranger Rick magazine when ordering a subscription for my godson. It turns out you can't trust a raccoon even if he works to protect nature and wears a cute park ranger hat. Due to never-ending "limited-time-only" offers, I've unsubscribed from him a dozen times, but he still snuck into my inbox with a special promotion on Raccoon Appreciation Day. (I was not appreciative.)

Having experienced email overload like this, I'm always hesitant to give out my email or to sign up for another newsletter, and you probably feel the same way. Yet as Assumption's "e-vangelist," I also know that email is a key part of our parish communications, and I would encourage you to make sure you are receiving our Flocknote emails for several reasons:

On a practical note, the weekly emails ensure that you won't miss out on announcements or reminders from Assumption, even when you're under the weather, traveling, or just forgot to grab a bulletin. We also use Flocknote to communicate about unexpected schedule changes, inclement weather (read: polar vortex), or other unforeseen circumstances. If the power goes out or there's an emergency, having current contact information helps us keep everyone safe and up to date with a quick email or text.

Above all, our messages are meant to keep our parish family connected. Even when you can't be with us in person, we hope to brighten your day, remind you of our prayers and support, and invite you to join us when you can! In the end, I pray that our communications lead to communion with the fellow members of our flock and with our Good Shepherd.

Next weekend, February 7/8, I will be in the gathering space after both Masses to answer questions about our Flocknote communications. If you aren't on the list, need to update your contact information, or want to learn more, just stop by, and I'll be happy to help you! You can also email me with any questions or concerns (my contact information is on the front of the bulletin).

I'd like to end with a reflection that inspires my communications work: God isn't content to connect with us "remotely" or on an intellectual level; in fact, his Word took flesh to personally communicate his love for us. Because of this, Matthew Warner reminds us, evangelization is much more than simply sharing information; it's sharing our friendship with Jesus in the context of a relationship with one another. May our communication always find its inspiration in Jesus, the living and loving Word of God, who calls us to communion!

Anna

Flocknote Education Weekend

Not receiving your weekly Flocknote email from Assumption? Need to update your email address?

Our "e-vangelist," Anna Martin, will be available in the gathering space after weekend Masses on February 7/8. If you have questions about Flocknote or need to update your contact information, just stop by and she will be happy to assist you! You can also contact her at anna@assumptionmidland.org.

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven." – Matthew 5:3

When Jesus refers to "the poor in spirit" in the Beatitudes, He is referring to recognizing one's own spiritual need for God and the knowledge that we need to rely on Him rather than our own self. To attain the kingdom of heaven, we need to detach ourselves from earthly things and focus on heavenly things and how we best fit into serving God's kingdom on earth.

V is for Vocation: Ray & Joan Bartos

We give thanks and pray for long-time parishioners Ray & Joan Bartos, who celebrated 68 years of marriage on September 14 last year.

“For Catholics, marriage is not merely a civil contract but is a covenant between a man and a woman before God. If both are baptized, the marriage is a sacrament, a symbol of the unity of Christ and the church. A sacramental marriage is a means of grace, giving strength to the husband and wife to live out their commitment, and to help each on the path to holiness.” (USCCB)

Read more about the Sacrament of Marriage:
<https://saginaw.org/sacrament-marriage>

Prayer for Married Couples: We praise You, O God, we bless You, Creator of all things, who in the beginning made man and woman that they might form a communion of life and love. We also give You thanks for graciously blessing our family life so that it might present an image of Christ's union with the Church. Therefore, look with kindness upon us today, and as You have sustained our communion amid joys and struggles, renew our marriage covenant each day, increase our charity, and strengthen in us the bond of peace, so that we may forever enjoy Your blessing. Through Christ our Lord. Amen. (USCCB)

Youth Ministry

With last weeks cancellation of classes this Sunday, February 1st, we will cover the information that we missed last week!

Middle School... We will begin the teaching on the Sacraments...Treasures of our faith! It will be a celebration!!

High School... "Merge" is the title to this week's lesson. The goal is to help teens see how sacramental marriage is good for society and to inspire them to support the institution of marriage.

Main Ideas

- * Marriage is a sacrament of the Church in which a man and woman commit to love and honor each other for the duration of their lives.
- * Marriage is not just important to Catholics but is the foundation of the family, which is the fundamental unit of society.

~Why is marriage important for families and society at large?

Catechism Reference... "The matrimonial covenant, by which a man and a woman establish between themselves a partnership of the whole of life, is by its nature ordered toward the good of the spouses and the procreation and education of offspring; this covenant between baptized persons has been raised by Christ the Lord to the dignity of a sacrament." (CCC 1601)

There will be no YM on Sunday, February 8th, but I will need youth to help after masses for the "Souper" Bowl collection!

Sunday, February 15th, YM will take place at Assumption for the Sarah Hart presentation!

"Thanks so much for your support!"

The Knights of Fr. Henry P. DuRussel Council 2141 would like to extend their gratitude to those who supported the Knights' pasty sale in January which raised over $2700 for seminarian education here in the Diocese of Saginaw. Thanks for your generosity in supporting the men discerning their path to the priesthood, and a big thank you to all those who joined us in the kitchen this past month!

Last year, we contributed to further the education of the men at seminary, provided for local charities such as Special Olympics, Tall In The Saddle, and The Arc of Midland, funded and distributed gift cards to the boys at Pineview Homes, supported Right To Life events in Midland County, and donated children's coats to both the Midland North Family Center and the Coleman Family Center among other efforts. In addition, proceeds from our two pierogi sales went to LifeClinic and to the Midland County Food Assistance Network.

We were also pleased to assist the parish with support for the Elvis Tribute Show, the PolishFEST, Assumption Bazaar & luncheon, Lessons & Carols, Mardi Gras, and the Mother's Day Breakfast to name a few.

Thanks to you, we continue to meet our goals of providing for the council's charitable works, working together to help those in need, and engaging in good fellowship.

As the work of Christmas continues in 2026, we are blessed to partner with the parish as a faith-in-action community in service to others, and we welcome those who would like to partake in upholding our guiding principles of Charity, Unity, and Fraternity.

From presenting a baptismal teddy bear to men's faith study to making pasties, the opportunities are plentiful. Come join us. Peace and blessings in this new year.
