*Mt 28:19a, 20b

BULLETIN DEADLINE:

noon on MONDAY for the May 24th issue
noon on THURSDAY, May 21st for the May 31st issue

From our Director of Parish Life

"Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. He began to teach in their synagogues . . . He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written: 'The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim a year of the Lord's favor.'" Luke 4:4-5,17-19

Bishop Gruss has proclaimed the next year, from Pentecost 2026 through Pentecost 2027, as a Year of the Holy Spirit throughout the Diocese of Saginaw. In his letter of proclamation, he invited us to become "more missional focused . . . that ministry begins with the power of the Holy Spirit." The bishop envisions "numerous events in the Diocese and in particular parishes to celebrate the Year of the Holy Spirit."

As one response to the bishop's invitation, I would like to invite us as a parish to reflect over the summer on one of the main ways that the Holy Spirit has spoken through our church in modern times. Beginning this past January, Pope Leo began a series of teachings each Wednesday on the topic of Vatican II, helping us to better listen and heed how the Holy Spirit has spoken to us in our times. The pope stated that he is sharing these reflections as "a valuable opportunity to rediscover the beauty and importance" of the documents of Vatican II, which are still "a guiding principle for us today . . . the guiding star of the Church's journey today."

What is Vatican II? Vatican II was an ecumenical council (worldwide meeting of bishops and other guests) which was called together at the Vatican in 1962 by Pope St. John XXIII. When he opened the council, Pope John prayed to the Holy Spirit to "renew your wonders in our day as by a new Pentecost." This was an unexpected move by the Holy Father, since Vatican II was only the second ecumenical council since the mid-16th century and the first in almost 100 years. The council was concluded by Pope St. Paul VI in 1965. Vatican II produced 16 documents, which have shaped the life of Catholics and other Christians over the past 60 yrs.

Why was Vatican II convoked at that time by Pope John XXIII?

Almost all the over 20 ecumenical councils in history were called to settle disputes of Christian doctrine in the face of unorthodox teachings (heresies) being spread that threatened the unity of the Church's faith and practice. The First Vatican Council (1869-1870) was called because of the political reality of the dissolution of the Papal States in Italy, which was putting to an end the era where the Pope ruled the governing of both the Church and the state. It defined the Pope's unique role in the Church, even as the papacy was losing its influence in the political sphere.

The Second Vatican Council was different. It was not a doctrinal council, but a pastoral council. The first half of the 20th century had been the most violent and destructive in history. The great advances in technology, while solving many problems that had plagued humanity throughout history, had also been turned against humanity. The bloodshed and devastation of the two World Wars (mostly between Christian nations!), the unimaginable evil of the Jewish Holocaust and other ethnic/national genocides, the rise of a kind of Atheistic nationalism (Communism, Nazism) that justified the denial of human dignity and human rights, the detonation of nuclear weapons upon Japan and their subsequent proliferation, etc. put the world on the brink of annihilation. Human life had never been violated so casually. In this context, a Catholic Church taking its direction from the Council of Trent (16th century-concerned with the challenge of the Protestant Reformation) would be inadequate to the new situation in which humanity found itself in the mid-20th century. Put simply, the Lutherans (and other Protestants) were not the problem. The entire world had lost its sense of God (as the philosopher Nietzsche ruefully observed that "God is dead" in the modern world). When humans lose faith in the reality of the Living God, we lose the sense that we are all related as sisters and brothers in the Father's love and that we are all created in the image of the God who is Love. Thus, others become means or obstacles to fulfil our desires, leaving violence and death as means to attain this end.

Vatican II walked two complimentary paths to address the threats to the very existence of humanity and our common home that marked the mid-20th century (and still mark our times). One was the path of ressourcement. The other was the path of aggiornamento. Ressourcement is a French term meaning "return to the sources." The bishops at Vatican II recognized that our times are more like the times that the early Christians experienced under the paganism of the Roman Empire than they resembled the "Christendom" that characterized Europe of the 2nd millennium. Vatican II called us back to the roots of our tradition, roots that take account of the entirety of Christian history not just the tradition that arose out of the Catholic counter-Reformation. A renewed Church able to meet modern challenges must take inspiration from the entire tradition. Aggiornamento is an Italian word that means "adaptation and updating." A Church that seeks to be fruitful must speak to modern people in ways that we can understand. It must not only look back into the tradition but also forward toward the unique situation of our times, speaking to people's real needs and concerns. Christians in our times cannot withdraw from the concerns of modern people and the political and moral realities that we face together but engage those realities under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. The model for aggiornamento is the Incarnation of Jesus, when the eternal Son of God became human (assuming but not absorbing human nature) and encountered the people and situational realities of his place and time, transforming them from within not through violence or coercion, but through love.

One way that I would like to invite us to follow the promptings of Pope Leo and Bishop Gruss is by prayerfully reading (or rereading) the documents of Vatican II over the summer. I will be doing this as a spiritual practice myself. Each week between now and the end of summer, I will reflect on an aspect or two of each document that might be relevant to our personal and communal journey at the beginning of this Year of the Holy Spirit. The documents can be found on the Vatican website. Thematically, I have organized the documents into the categories: (1) Who we are as a Church [May and June], (2) How we are related to other believers [July], and (3) What is our mission? [August].

This week, I would propose that we reflect on the Vatican II document The Dogmatic Constitution on the Church. It's also known by its Latin title Lumen Gentium. It can be found on the Vatican website by doing an internet search for either title. I hope that we can journey together with the pope and our bishop, following this "guiding star of the Church's journey today" as we heed and discern the Holy Spirit's promptings both personally and as a community of faith.

John

Ascension of the Lord

"... He raised his eyes to heaven and said ... 'I glorified you on earth by accomplishing the work you gave me to do.'" John 17: 1, 4

Jesus completed the work that God the Father set forth for him. What about us? Do we discern or know the work that God has planned for us? God has given each of us talents and abilities and as stewards of His kingdom, we are called to use those gifts to help others.

V is for Vocation: Pope Leo XIV

We give thanks for Pope Leo XIV. We pray for His Holiness as he begins his second year of ministry as the successor to St. Peter, head of the Holy Church. In his message to the faithful for the World Day of Prayer for Vocations on April 26, Pope Leo writes, "Indeed, a vocation is not a fixed point, but a dynamic process of maturation sustained by intimacy with our Lord. To grow in one's vocation means being with Jesus, allowing the Holy Spirit to act in our hearts and in the circumstances of life, and reinterpreting everything in light of this gift... A vocation, therefore, is not an immediate possession — something "given" once and for all. Instead, it is a path that unfolds much like life itself. The gift we have received must not only be protected but also nourished by a daily relationship with God in order to grow and bear fruit."

Hail Mary, full of grace; all generations call you blessed. Hail Mother of God; when asked by the angel to bear the Son of the Most High, filled with faith, you responded: "Let it be done unto me." Holy Mother of Jesus, at the wedding feast at Cana, you prompted your Son to perform his first sign. Be with us as we discern our life's work and guide us in the way we are called to follow in the footsteps of your Son. Amen. (adapted from USCCB)

You are invited to join this year's excursion to the Detroit Institute of Arts (DIA)

sponsored by Our Lady of Grace Parish and the Evangelization Committee

Although the DIA is known for its wide representation of the arts, this year's bus trip is being billed: "Look for the Halos!"

This will be an inspiring look into the history of European art and its influence on Catholicism OR the influence Catholicism has had on the arts over the centuries. The fun ride on Mitchell Motorcoach, Ltd. leaves no later than 10:00 on June 17, 2026. From Our Lady of Grace Parish parking lot in Sanford. Once we arrive, there is a quick orientation by DIA staff. If needed, DIA is very accommodating for attendees with handicap facilities available. (Bring your own assistance—There's lots of room on the bus).

After a fun, inspirational day at the DIA, we will return to the Our Lady of Grace Parish parking lot where we started, at 2500 N West River RD, Sanford, at approximately 6:00 PM. Cost: $40 (includes bus fare and entry fee to DIA)

Payment can be made at Our Lady of Grace Parish office (check or cash only)

Grant Applications Close

Apply for 2026 Grants!

Grants recipients at the Foundation's 2025 Grants Luncheon.

The Catholic Community Foundation's 2026 Grant Application period is now open! Our community grants are designed to support the immediate needs of our entire community throughout Mid-Michigan. Grant applications will close on June 30, 2026.

With the Foundation's stewardship of endowed funds, we are able to provide both long-term, perpetual support to parishes and schools, while also stewarding your gifts to support the needs of our community right now.

Last year, the Foundation disbursed more than $150,000 to grant recipients. Their service to our community focused on a range of causes, like the needs of our Catholic schools and the needs of the poor and vulnerable. From supporting food banks to providing free health care, our grant recipients work every day to lift up our community by supporting those most vulnerable.

As we celebrate the Foundation's 20th Anniversary, we are so thankful for the donors who make these grants possible. In total, the Catholic Community Foundation has disbursed more than $1.9 million in community grants. It's a part of our 20 year legacy of generously supporting the spiritual, educational, and social needs of the Diocese of Saginaw.

To apply for 2026 grants, visit our website at www.ccfmm.org/grants or scan the QR code.

Giving in Abundance, Giving in Memory

After attending one of the Catholic Community Foundation of Mid-Michigan's "End of Life with Christ" seminars, Mary Reynolds and her husband Roger arranged to look at a cemetery plot. That's where they discovered that many Catholics can't afford a proper Catholic burial.

When Roger unexpectedly passed away in 2024, Mary said, "I gave Roger the best Catholic funeral he could have had." Afterwards, she set up an endowment with the Foundation to help others have a Catholic funeral.

Mary and Roger were married for 63 years. They met on a blind date, but as Mary says, "I knew it was love at first sight. I knew he was the one." Everyone loved Roger. He was kind, laid back, and loving, and complimented Mary as they raised three children. "He lived a full life," said Mary. "He was happy. He wouldn't have done anything differently."

Mary and Roger decided to learn how to invest to better provide for their family. Soon, Mary started to view investing as stewardship of God's gifts. "God gave you the talent, the grace, and everything you need to know how to give back," Mary explained.

Before Roger's passing, he and Mary talked about setting up an endowment. As a lifelong Catholic, Mary knew the importance of stewardship. "I just had a sense of responsibility to be generous because the Lord has blessed us," Mary said. "I felt the need to give back—not because somebody asked me, but because I felt that in my heart it was the right thing to do."

After Roger's passing, Mary and her family established the Roger Reynolds Family Endowment, designed to provide funds for Catholic funerals and burials for those in need in Saginaw County. In fact, Mary set up the endowment with an initial gift from her IRA that fulfilled her Required Minimum Distribution (RMD). While receiving the tax benefits of giving from her IRA, Mary also ensured her family's gift will benefit the Catholic community of the Diocese of Saginaw for generations.

Now, Mary is the Foundation's newest board member and serves on the Investment Committee. When Mary talks to others about giving to fulfill a RMD, she recommends having a glass-half-full kind of attitude. "Start thinking differently about the giving process," Mary encourages. You can give to your children through your church—sustaining your family, church, and Catholic community for generations.

"When I give in abundance, I receive in abundance," Mary simply says. "God gives you the direction. You just have to be open and willing to listen."

Mary and Roger Reynolds.
